

Instant Energy to Fuel your Body with Performance Strength benefits!*

ViSalus Go™ Instant Energy Drink is a patent-pending formula that can help fuel your workout from start to finish! It also helps support visual acuity*, which is especially good for anyone who uses computers or plays video games.

ViSalus Go™ is ideal for those who exercise to provide extra energy and nutrition to help support peak muscle performance. It assists alertness, wakefulness, and enhances cognitive performance, while fueling your body with nutrients needed to help sustain exercise. Use this product before or during your workout, or any time you need energy fast.

ViSalus Propriety Go™ Blend Includes:

Powergrape®—Whole Grape Extract unlike other brands that may use only the fruit powder, ViSalus Go™ uses the clinically tested and patent whole grape extract to help with endurance and power. Clinical testing shows this unique, patented extract can enhance the cell uptake of oxygen, which can help you perform at your best.*

- Black Current Extract a strong antioxidant
- Rhodiola Extract can help improve mental and physical performance, elevates mood, and helps combats fatigue.*
- Cassis Pigment Extract clinically shown to help the body after exercise feel its best, an important nutrient that can help the body fight inflammation.*
- Isomaltulose is a low-insulinemic sweetener that supports improved fat oxidation during physical activity.
- Citrulline Malate helps the body make Nitric Oxide, which increases blood flow and helps generate ATP (Adenosine TriPhosphate) the main molecule of energy in the body.
- Five Essential Vitamins to help protect cells from damage, boost immunity, support efficient brain function, aid metabolism, and help maintain healthy blood sugar and blood pressure levels.*
